

Conference and Event Packages Toll Stadium

Where it all comes together

Welcome

Toll Stadium is Whangarei's newest multipurpose facility catering for everything from dinners, meetings, and weddings to large scale festivals, concerts and sports events.

Whatever the occasion, we can help make it special.

We are ideally situated on Okara Drive, just 2kms from Whangarei's CBD and 9 kms from the airport.

We have a range of multi functional rooms that can accommodate events from 2 people to 600 and are adaptable in layout to easily meet individual requirements and budget. Our facilities have contemporary rooms, and furnishings that create a distinctive atmosphere and a touch of class.

All rooms are fully equipped with modern audio and visual equipment and wireless internet.

Whangarei attractions

Just 2 hours North of Auckland, Whangarei has plenty to entertain from exhilarating and completely unique adventures to peaceful back to nature activities, inspired shopping, a thriving arts community and quality dining; you will be surprised by what you find here.

The coastal attractions range from remote coves, with dramatic headlands, to off-shore islands, world class diving, surfing, fishing, kayaking, camp grounds, first class accommodation, amazing walks and golden sunrises. With no point of the Whangarei District more than 40kms from the Pacific Ocean, the eastern seaboard is an obvious playground for locals and visitors.

Charters for fishing, diving and sightseeing are available from many of the marinas and main boat ramps, but Tutukaka harbour is the main port for a fleet of game fishing, dive and eco charter vessels.

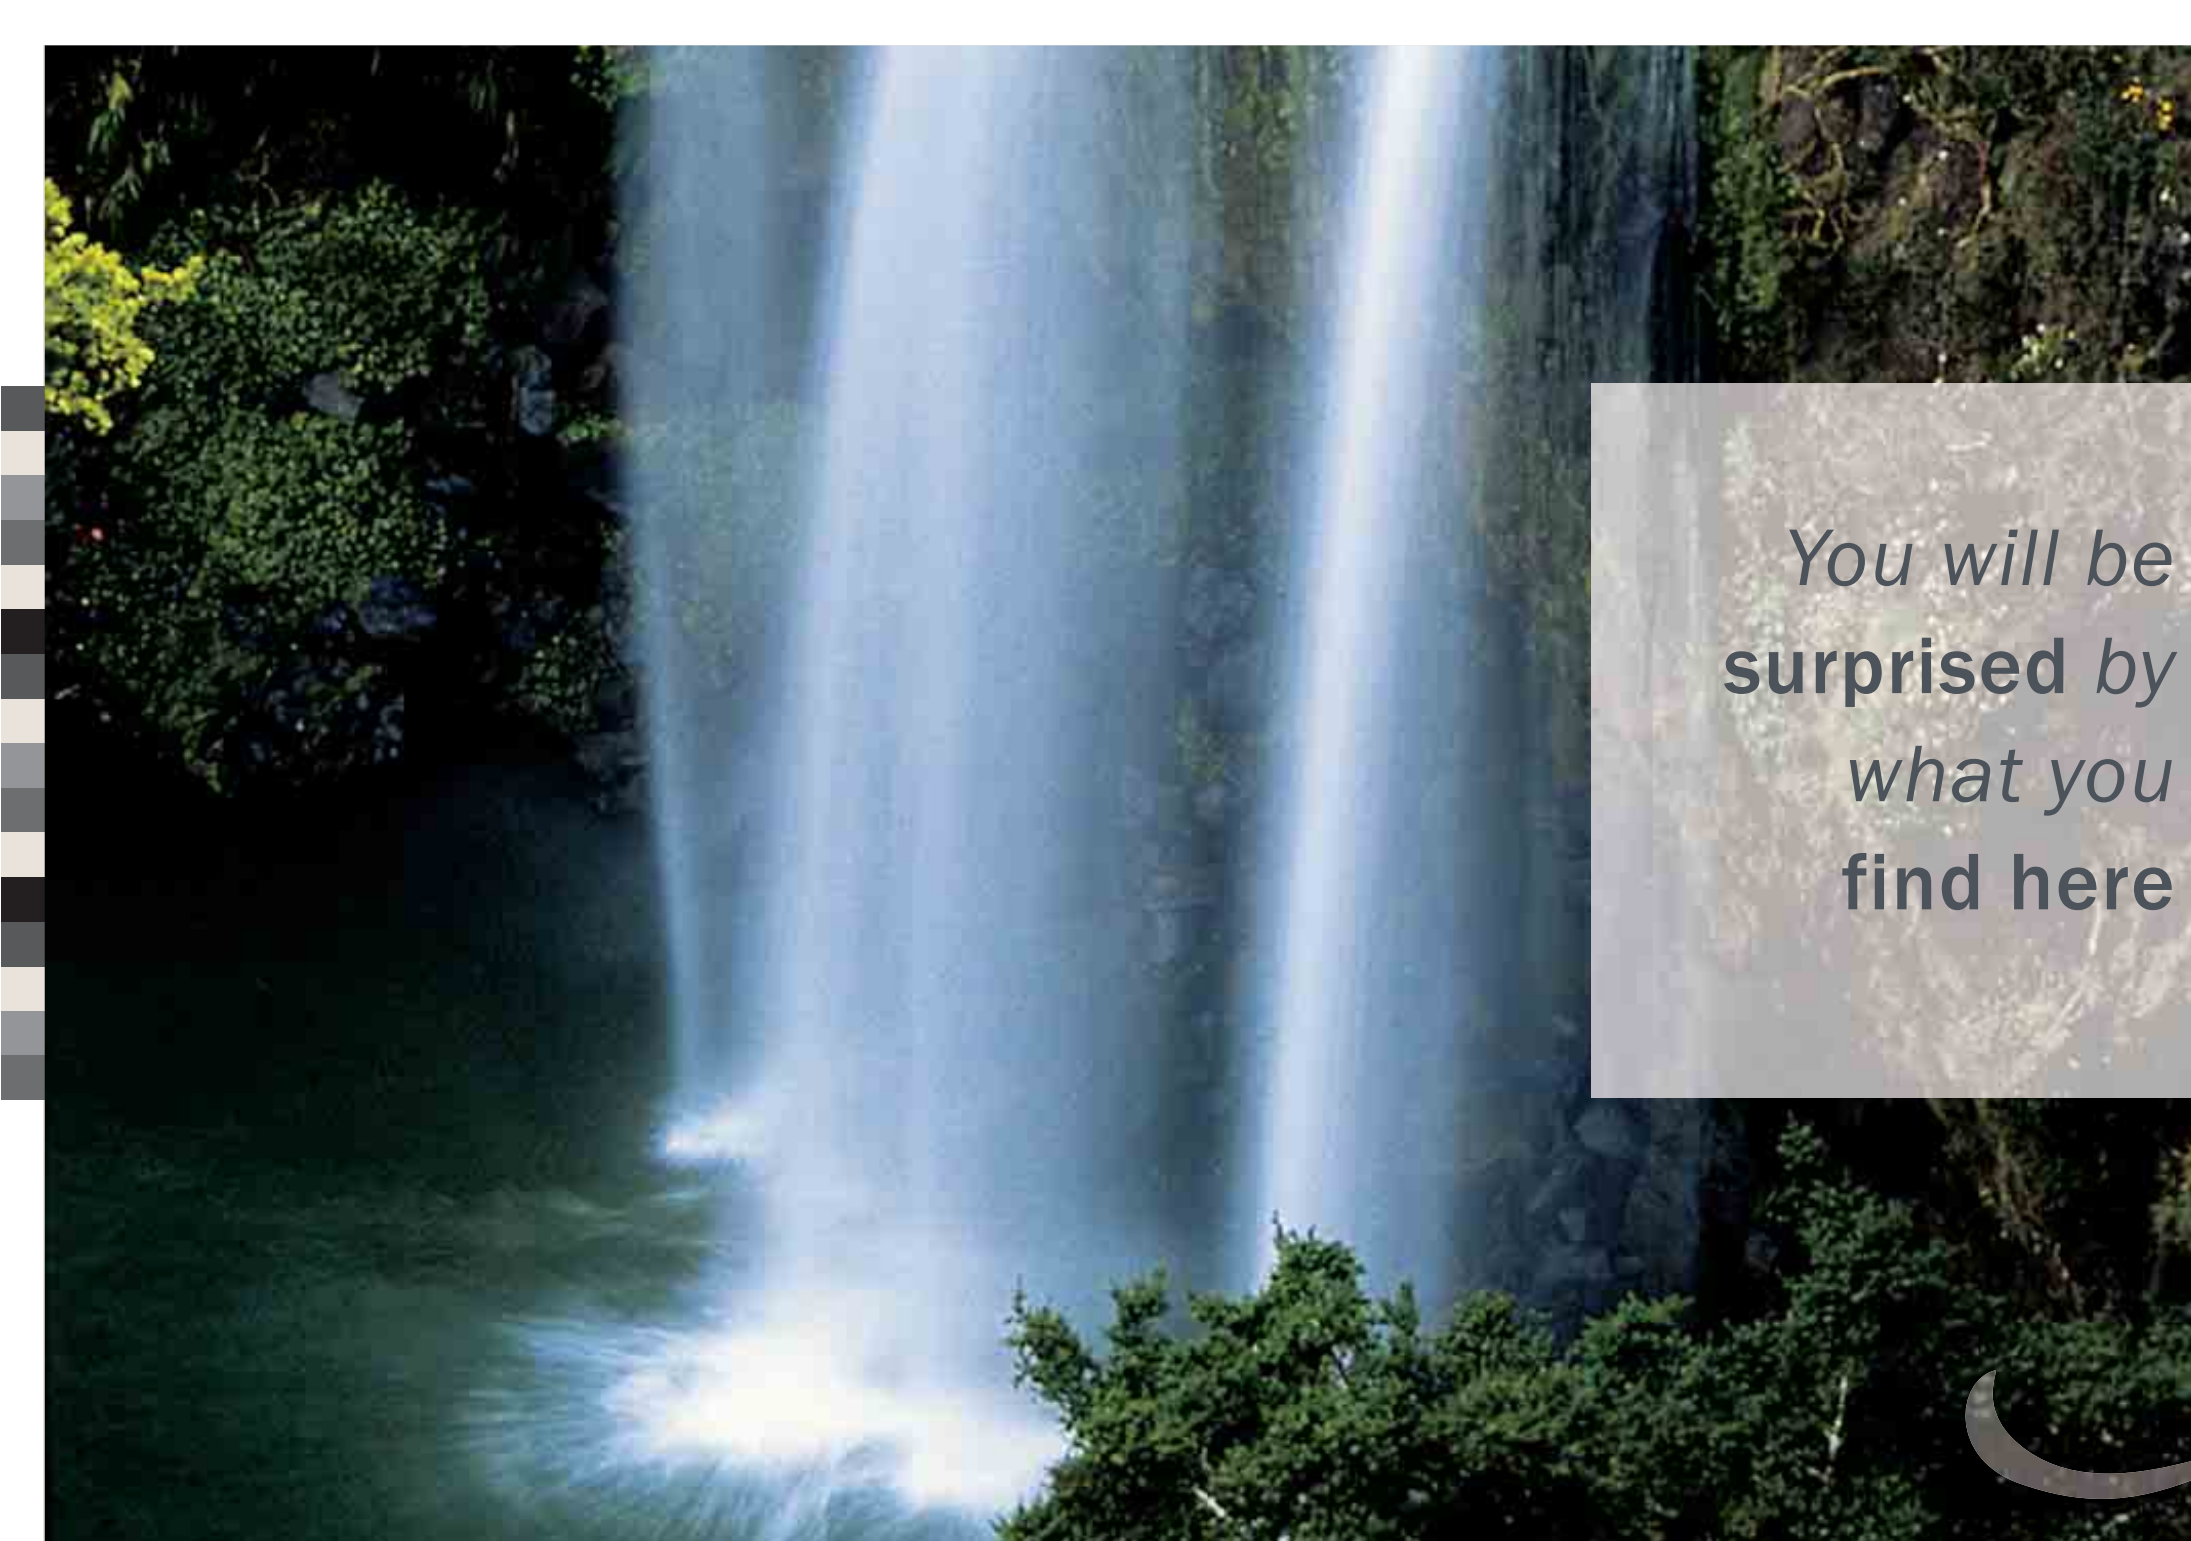

Kayaking is another popular way of getting up close with the coast. Kayaks are available for hire at several locations, guided sea kayak tours range from intimate estuary exploration to serious open-sea voyages, including overnight camping on wild and remote foreshores.

At the heart of the city centre is an attractive shopping mall, with creative copper trees among the greenery and a unique timeline cast in a series of bronze plaques that tell the local history as you wander through. For the shopper within, there is a choice from department stores to designer boutiques and, of course, plenty of local art.

Just a few minutes' walk away is the Town Basin, a place to go for stylish cafes and restaurants, art galleries, a glass-blowing studio, specialty shops, arts and crafts and the National Clock Museum. The Marina attracts the international cruising yacht community because of the town's reputation for boat building and maintenance, and its unique position in the heart of the city.

what you

There is plenty to do if you are looking to recharge and relax, with the back-to-nature attractions around Whangarei. Whangarei Falls, 5km north of Whangarei are a spectacular 26m waterfall at the AH Reed Kauri Park where visitors can view 500 year old kauri trees from a treetop boardwalk. Close by Mount Parahaki, once the site of New Zealand's largest pa (Maori fortified village), offers walks through native bush and views over the city. Choose from a variety of coastal walks with outstanding views of the harbour, coastline and offshore islands or tranquil walks through native forest, Whangarei has it all.

Perhaps an extra workshop or two, a fun, interactive team building session, or a keynote to get everyone fired up, engaged and enthused. We're here to make your event as easy, enjoyable and successful as possible - it's what we do! So here are some ideas to get you started and we provide fully customised packages to fit your group's unique needs - just call us to find out how we can help you.

Key Note Speaker - Jaki GT

Topics: "Working together through change" or "The X Factor for high performing teams"

Research tells us that people drive 90% of your results but that less than 20% of employees are fully engaged at work... What could it mean to your business if they were committed to high performance?

3 reasons to book Jaki GT as your keynote speaker:

1. Content that pushes buttons! Jaki will challenge your illicit beliefs and get you thinking like you've never done before!
2. Weaving real life application, humour and anecdotes into her presentations Jaki GT's keynotes hit the right mix of practical take outs, inspiration and humour.
3. Experience and credentials to back it up. Jaki brings years of experience as a trainer, manager, business owner and NLP consultant to deliver content and a performance you'll remember
